Thanks for the review. I made a few edits in the "Objects and Values" statements throughout the document. Solicitor Steiger is clear that the Antiquities Act protects objects. The "values" portion of that statement was added via NLCS Manuals, with little context or definition. I also did a little editing on the Grazing plan info.

Larry & Matt may have additional edits, but I wanted to get these to you asap.

Thanks

Cindy, Matt and Larry,

I have gone through Cynthia Hernandez's edits and comments, answered her questions, and suggested revisions based on her comments (attached). Kris and Alisa had asked me to do this in advance of our call next Weds, 7/5. Let me know if you have any questions about anything I've said. I hope to talk with you next week.

Best, Kevin

Cindy,

I wanted to check in to see whether you have any comments on the GSENM Story Map. We received the attached edits from Cynthia Hernandez in WO Public Affairs yesterday. Kris, Alisa and I plan to meet next week, Weds., July 5 at 3 pm, to discuss these suggestions. We'd like to extend an invitation for you to join us then, or to send us any edits, comments, or suggestions you have. I'll send out a Google Calendar invitation with a conference line, and (separately) a webex link. If you'd like to meet with us but this time is not suitable, please let us know an alternative time.

Thanks, Kevin

I wanted to check to see whether you folks have had a chance to review the Story Map. I believe you, Matt and Larry have all been granted access (I spoke to Larry about that a week or so ago). We wonder whether you have any comments or would like to schedule a conference call (and/or a demo?) to discuss it? We'd be happy to meet with you any time that suits you.

Thanks, Kevin
